

RES Comprehensive Examination Form

A comprehensive examination is a Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies (G+PS) requirement for the PhD program. The comprehensive examination is intended to test a PhD student's grasp of the chosen field of study as a whole, and the student's ability to communicate his or her understanding of it in English. All PhD students are required to successfully complete a comprehensive examination and it should take place 18 - 24 months after the start of a PhD student's program.

Please complete this form and submit it to the Graduate Program Manager in AERL rm 430 a minimum of three weeks prior to the proposed comprehensive exam date.

It is the student's responsibility to confirm that a room is booked for their comprehensive exam when submitting this form.
